STUDENT REFLECTIONS

"My Jesuit values motivated me to pursue a degree that will allow me to fight for a just world."

"Although I'm not particularly religious, the ethics and philosophy courses taught me how to think critically and be a good person."

"Loyola helped me grow as a leader, find purpose in service, and believe I could make a difference."

Rooted in Jesuit tradition, Loyola cultivates graduates who think critically, communicate with clarity, and pursue justice. The values they carry with them, like Critical Thinking & Effective Communication, reflect a university experience that shapes both mind & spirit.
